Inspiring Skills for Life Learners through Museums, Libraries and Archives

Merchant Adventurers' Hall, York
Thursday 16 March 2006

Who is this for?

This conference is aimed at strategic bodies, funders and policy makers working on the Skills for Life agenda. This will include Learning and Skills Councils, Government Office representatives, Regional Development Agencies, Learning Partnership Managers and representative Heads of Service from regional Adult Education Colleges and museums, libraries and archives from across the North.

Aim:

Building on the success of our previous partnership event this conference aims to raise awareness of the potential learning opportunities in museums, libraries and archives that directly support the Skills for Life agenda.

Outcomes:

Opportunities for creative thinking, planning and partnership building will be available on the day.

Outline Programme

The day will start at 10.00am
and finish at 3.45pm

During the day there will be a series of speakers including:

- » Terry Caffrey, Performance Poet and Writer
- » Dr Jan Eldred, Senior Development Officer, NIACE
- » Natasha Innocent, Lifelong Learning Advisor, Museums Libraries and Archives Council
- » Regional Learner voices
- » Representatives from MLA North West, North East Museums, Libraries and Archives Council and Yorkshire Museums, Libraries and Archives Council.

In the afternoon there will also be the opportunity to see some of the good practice going on across the North in museums, libraries and archives and to hear some of the experiences of the learners involved.

At the end of the day there will be opportunities for collaborative planning and a feedback session.

To book a place, please submit your form to Raksha Mistry at NIACE, 4th Floor, Enkalon House, 92 Regent Road, Leicester, LE1 7PE or email raksha.mistry@niace.org.uk by Friday 24th February 2006. Early booking is recommended as places are limited. Confirmation of booking will be sent by 6th March 2006.
